

Departmental Activities

- The students are taught video camera and video editing
- The students are also encourage and facilitated to make documentaey Films and short films.
- The students are also participate in seminars and workshops organised by different institutions.
- The department has organised a one day National seminar on Hundred Years of Mrinal Sen conducted by Dr. Anindya Sengupta, department of Film Studies Jadavpur University.
- The department has organised a national level photography competition which name was " Agamoni" .