OBJECTIVES: Improve humanitarian aid during cyclones, floods, and other disasters; encourage social responsibility among students and faculty; assist indigenous fishing and communities, promoting educational visits and outreach programs; and strengthen resilience and sustainable development.

AREAS OF COLLABORATION: Disaster relief, fundraising, community outreach, awareness programs, capacity-building initiatives, and student participation in social service activities, field visits, and academic surveys.

EXPECTED OUTCOMES: The initiative will provide immediate support to vulnerable families affected by disasters such as Cyclone Yaas and the COVID-19 pandemic, helping communities rebuild livelihoods and enhance resilience and promoting community outreach programs.

TERM AND TERMINATION: This MOU will remain in effect for 5 years from the date of signing unless both parties agree to extend it. Either institution can terminate the agreement with six months' prior written notice before the termination date. This collaboration does not establish any legal relationship between the institutions, nor does it impose any binding legal responsibilities beyond what is specified in this agreement.
